Re: Eric Nelson
RJA Case Number 2016-06-027

Mr. Munn:

My office has been retained by the Aurora Public School District to review for accuracy the resume/biography of Aurora Public School member ERIC NELSON that was previously posted on the Aurora Public School website.

Executive Summary

Aurora Public School Board member ERIC NELSON falsified his academic history and exaggerated his professional affiliations. Of the four college degrees he listed on his biography/resume, none exist. He supplied a false or altered diploma in an effort to substantiate one of his degrees. He also sought to represent himself in photos on social media as an Air Force officer, although it appears he was only an enlistee in the Air Force for several weeks.

The information in this report shows that NELSON has exhibited less than ethical behavior and misrepresented himself to deceive others into believing he was a qualified candidate for the Aurora Public School Board. Beyond the obvious issues of NELSON as a role model for Aurora's youth, is the equally serious issue of being trustworthy and responsible as a public servant in face of the public's trust. Mr. NELSON's deception is evidence of misconduct as an elected official.

As a former criminal and grand jury investigator with the Denver District Attorney's Complex Prosecution Unit and a private investigator for 28 years, I have investigated my share of con men – those who lie and deceive others for their own benefit. NELSON lied about his education, his military service, and his involvement with various businesses and organizations. NELSON, in response to public criticism and questions in June of this year, made available a document he prepared on or about June 15 concerning these documented misrepresentations, created new falsehoods to attempt to cover up lies and misrepresentations and communicated those falsehoods in public forums.

See: <http://coloradopols.com/diary/84426/aurora-school-board-member-house-candidate-appears-to-be-spectacular-con-artist#sthash.R1sPChId.dpbs>

NELSON claims to have taught as an adjunct faculty member at two Colorado universities; this is true only in part, and it appears that the adjunct position in which he served was most likely appointed under misrepresentation of his professional qualifications through providing false statements on his resume concerning his academic achievements. NELSON claims to be a contributor to forty organizations; however, this investigation has revealed that some of these organizations have no idea who he is, or that he inflated his contributions to include claims of board member positions. It would appear his inflated resume and academic achievements could have influenced his level of participation with these organizations.

NELSON lists four degrees on his resume and supplied a false diploma in an attempt to verify one of them. NELSON has no college degrees. NELSON states he served in the United States Air Force and insinuates through posted pictures online that he was an officer. It appears he was only in the Air Force for a few weeks.

NELSON has proven himself to be a fraud and an intentional deceiver. He has misrepresented himself with half-truths and misinformation in efforts to elevate his status and skirt barriers to higher positions than his true qualifications would otherwise afford him. NELSON has demonstrated that he is primarily interested in his own gain regardless of ethical or moral issues that would restrain such behaviors in others. NELSON shows a compulsion toward glorifying himself despite the significant risks tied to protecting himself as someone he is not. These issues raise questions of whether an individual demonstrating such dishonest behavior, who appears ruled by only self-interest, can be an asset to the school community and be focused on student achievement, or truly represent to others the value of honesty in scholastic matters. These problems could raise potential ethical issues for the Aurora School Board over any support for this individual in the wake of the board's knowledge concerning evidence of NELSON's academic and potential employment fraud. A person lacking in honesty who is also a representative of a school board opens the organization to public criticism for far more than providing a poor role model for students. Competing unfairly through misrepresentation is fraudulent and deceptive, and brings disrespect on an institution attempting to perform a public service.

While ERIC NELSON may be a legend in his own mind, he has by the accompanying documentation shown himself to engage in habitual lies and self-marinated in the grandeur of something he is not, refusing to separate truth from fiction.

State Board of Education Qualifications

Must be 18 years of age, a Colorado and district resident, and a US citizen. The length of term is four years and the number of terms one can serve is two.

Records maintained with the Aurora Public Schools reflect that ERIC NELSON, a resident of Aurora, Colorado, filed appropriate documents with Arapahoe County Clerk and Recorder's Office and the Aurora Public Schools to be placed on the ballot for the November 5, 2013, coordinated election. He was elected and his term will expire November 2017.

Dr. NELSON earned a B.A. in Psychology from Southeastern University, a Master of Social Work from Northwest Nazarene University, an MBA from Northeastern University, and a Doctorate degree in Organizational Psychology from Southeastern University, Washington, DC. He is also a minister and elder at the Potter's House Church of Denver. Dr. NELSON feels anyone with a positive mental attitude that tries hard enough and aims high will achieve success.

Education Follow-up

Educational attainment and adjunct professor position claims on the resume that he provided to the Aurora Public School Board are false and no dates of university or college attendance or graduation were provided by NELSON. What follows is a summary of those findings.

B.A. in Psychology from Southeastern University, Ft. Lauderdale and Lakeland, FL – NOT TRUE

Two Southeastern Universities exist. One is known as Nova Southeastern University, located in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. No degree or dates of attendance were found for ERIC NELSON. The registrar at Nova researched and found that if NELSON would have attended this university, the degree would have been a B.S. in Psychology (not a B.A.).

Southeastern University in Lakeland, FL was renamed as such in 2005; prior to that it was named Southeastern College of the Assemblies of God in 1997. No degree or dates of attendance were found for ERIC NELSON. Compare these dates to the supplied diploma for purported Master's degree from Northwest Nazarene University dated May 15, 1999; Southeastern University did not exist as named until six years after the provided Northwest Nazarene University Master's degree. He claims to have obtained his master's degree before his undergraduate degree.

Master of Social Work from Northwest Nazarene University, Nampa, ID – NOT TRUE

This institution has no record of ERIC NELSON ever attending. NELSON supplied a photo via text message to The Aurora Sentinel and The Colorado Statesman of a diploma that was supposed to be issued to him from this institution on May 15, 1999 (Figure 1).

Inaccuracies exist in Figure 1 (accentuated with added blue arrows), among them the misspelling of Northwest (Nottwest) on the seal, and the body of the diploma containing verbiage for Glassboro College in New Jersey. Northwest Nazarene University never used special honors (such as magna cum laude) for graduate degrees, "only for undergraduate". Also, the Master's in Social Work degree did not begin until 1999, so there would not have been a graduate that year. The degree has always been designated as MSW (not MSSW) since its inception in 1999.

When comparing the compositions of the two figures, note the discrepancies in the name of the institution, the placement of the seal, the way the honor is added, the city, the verbiage, and the signatures.

Also of issue is the name of the school itself. The diploma supplied by NELSON has a date of graduation May 15, 1999, from "Northwest Nazarene University". At that time the school was named "Northwest Nazarene College", as demonstrated in a diploma supplied by the school. The date on the valid diploma (the name of the graduate is redacted) is June 12, 1999. NELSON claims to have obtained a degree from Northwest Nazarene University when the official name of the school at that time was Northwest Nazarene College, and on a date (May 15, 1999) earlier than the actual graduation (June 12, 1999).

(name of graduate was redacted by the school)

According to the registrar's office, they have no record with anyone graduating with a degree that corresponds with NELSON's date of birth and social security number.

MBA from Northeastern University, Boston, MA – NOT TRUE

According to the registrar's office, no student with the name ERIC NELSON with his corresponding date of birth and Social Security number ever registered or obtained a degree.

Doctorate degree in Organizational Psychology from Southeastern University, Washington, DC.

– NOT TRUE

This university lost accreditation and ceased offering classes on August 31, 2009. Graduate School USA is now the custodian of their records and their Registrar verified that Southeastern University did not offer Doctorate Degrees. They also did not find any undergraduate or graduate degrees for ERIC NELSON with his corresponding date of birth and Social Security number at this institution.

Adjunct Professor, University of Colorado – Denver, CO

– NOT TRUE

According to the University of Colorado Denver, ERIC NELSON (his date of birth and social security number were provided), records were not located indicating that he was an adjunct faculty member.

Adjunct Professor, Colorado State University - Ft. Collins, CO

TRUE

According to Colorado State University payroll records, ERIC NELSON (date of birth and Social Security number provided) was employed with the Ethnic Studies Department from August 16, 2012, through May 2013. A Colorado Open Records Request (CORA) was sent to the school and the following items were requested: His application for employment, his employment agreement, academic credentials he supplied as required for the position, performance ratings, and any correspondence regarding Mr. NELSON's position with the university.

Their response in part: “accordingly, the Act precludes us from producing any documents in response to your request”.

What specific records did Colorado State University rely on that allowed ERIC NELSON to be an Adjunct Professor?

Rocky Mountain Association of Black Psychologists

According to records maintained with the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies (DORA), no licenses were found to have been issued to ERIC NELSON in the mental health disciplines which include the following:

1. Addiction Counselors
2. Marriage and Family Therapists
3. Professional Counselors
4. Psychologists
5. Psychotherapists

3. The shoulder clusters – silver for Lieutenant Colonel, gold for Major; however, poor quality photograph; is unable to distinguish silver from gold.
4. It would take at least ten years of service to be a Major in the United States Air Force and fifteen years to make the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

According to Denver 7 News, the Department of Defense confirmed that NELSON was an active duty Air Force member from April 16, 1998, to June 18, 1998, and that he ended with a rank of E-2 Airman and his last duty title was Basic Airman Trainee. They have no awards or decorations on file for him.

The Behavior Continues

NELSON's pattern of deception continued when he interviewed for a small non-profit that provides support to families whose lives have been impacted by sudden, unexpected death of infant or toddler. He started February 1, 2016, and later resigned May of 2016.
